

BELLA CONDOMINIUMS
526 Pacific Avenue
Atlantic City, NJ 08401

EMERGENCY PROCEDURE
FOR ALL
OWNERS/TENANTS
VISITORS

The procedures for fire alarms on your floor, are as follows: Please proceed to the nearest stairwell, down to lobby area, wait for further instruction from Atlantic City Fire Department/Atlantic City Police Department, and Bella Staff.

If you need assistance, please call:
Front Desk at 609-310-8260
or 911.

PLEASE DO NOT USE ELEVATORS

Thank you!
Management

The emergency personnel will be responsible for rescue, and provide medical aide.

- The alternate notification to residents is as follows:
- The building announcement of public announce system
- The residential call list of residents and tenants
- The email addresses of the residents and tenants

The preferred is the fire control board that alerts the Atlantic City Fire Department directly.

The alternative would be that Bella Staff, residence and or tenant dial 911.

The Bella has sirens and strobe lights, and the voice module announces the following:

- ATTENTION, ATTENTION, EMERGENCY HAS BEEN DECLARED
- PROCEED TO THE NEAREST STAIRWELL IN A CALM AND ORDERLY FASHION. DO NOT USE THE ELEVATOR!

Fire drill will be held annually during yearly fire inspection to test fire systems in building. Written notice will be posted throughout common areas and all floors instructing owners, tenants and visitors of procedures during fire alarm.
